HISTORY

Massachusetts Consistory

S. P. R. S.

In June, 1857, some of the Brethren of the Masonic Fraternity in Lowell, who had been created Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, considered it advisable to establish a Grand Lodge of Perfection, and a Council of Princes of Jerusalem in that city.

A petition for a dispensation was presented to Edward A. Raymond, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, who issued his warrant, July, 1, 1857, authorizing Peter Lawson, William S. Gardner, Charles A. Davis, Joel Spalding, J. Tyler Spalding and Charles E. Kennedy to form and open a Council of Princes, and a Lodge of Perfection. May 28, 1858, the dispensation was returned and a charter granted.

The same Brethren received a dispensation to open a Chapter of Rose Croix, April 30, 1859, and a charter was granted May 16, 1860.

So much interest was manifested in the meetings of these three bodies of the Rite, and so successful were they, that on the 10th day of July, 1860, a Consistory was established at Lowell, by authority of a dispensation granted by the then Sovereign Grand Commander, Edward A. Raymond.

At a meeting of the Supreme Council, May 15, 1861, the dispensation was returned and a charter was granted to William Sutton, William S. Gardner, Charles A. Davis, Joel Spalding, J. Tyler Spalding and Nathaniel B. Shurtleff, with their future legal associates and successors, establishing them into a regular Sovereign Consistory S.P.R.S. under the title of Massachusetts Sovereign Consistory

and giving them precedence from July 10, 1860.

William Sewall Gardner was the first Commander-in-Chief, serving until Dec. 26, 1864, when William Sutton succeeded him and Brother Gardner was elected Secretary.

The returns to the Supreme Council for the year ending May 1, 1862, report twelve members and four initiates. In 1863, they reported thirteen members and ten initiates, while in 1864 they had fourteen members and two initiates. On the 23d of May, 1862, a dispensation was issued to Newell A. Thompson, William Parkman, Nathaniel B. Shurtleff, John McLellan, F. C. Raymond, Charles W. Moore, Benjamin Dean, Eben F. Gay and Charles C. Dame to open a Consistory in Boston to be known as Boston Consistory.

October 10, 1862, William S. Gardner as Deputy for Massachusetts reported that he had established this Consistory, and installed Newell A. Thompson Commander-in-Chief, and May 20, 1863 a charter was granted.

They reported for the year ending May 20, 1863, ten members and 521 initiations.

The Winthrop House, corner of Boylston and Tremont streets, used as a Masonic Temple and the place of meeting of Boston Consistory, was destroyed by fire April 5, 1864, and with other Masonic organizations, the Consistory held its meetings in Thorndike Hall on Summer Street. For the year ending May, 18, 1864, it returned thirty-two members and eighty-four initiates. Charles C. Dame was this year elected Commander, with Benjamin Dean and Charles Levi Woodbury as his Lieutenants.

In his annual address, at a session of the Supreme Council held May 20, 1862, the Grand Commander announced that on June 4, 1861, he had granted a dispensation to open a Consistory at Boston. February 20, 1863, an application was made for a charter, which was accepted June 2, 1863, when Edwin C. Bailey was elected Commander, with Caleb Rand as First and James H. Freeland as Second Lieutenants.

Dec. 29, 1863, the officers were publicly installed by Wyzeman Marshal at Nassau Hall, the meeting place of this new Consistory, known as DeWitt Clinton Consistory.

At the session of the Supreme Council in 1869 it was recommended that the Consistories of the various States consolidate their bodies into one, as far as practicable.

Acting on this recommendation the Ill. Deputy for Massachusetts, Ill. Samuel C. Lawrence, presented the subject to Massachusetts Council of Deliberation, at its session of May 6, 1870, and it was:

“Resolved, That it is essential to the prosperity of the A.A. Rite that there should be but one Consistory in the State, and the Council of Deliberation heartily recommend the union of the DeWitt Clinton and Boston Consistories, with the Massachusetts Consistory of Lowell, its charter being the oldest, and its name peculiarly appropriate for designating the sole Consistory of the State, and that the Massachusetts Consistory be immediately removed to Boston.”

Delegates were appointed by the three Consistories and at a Convention held Feb. 1, 1871, articles of agreement for a union were signed. So enthusiastic were the delegates that the pen used in signing the Articles of Agreement was sold at auction for twelve dollars, with the understanding that the proceeds of the sale should be added to the Charity Fund of Massachusetts Council of Deliberation.

By these articles, Massachusetts Consistory agreed “To hereafter hold its conventions for work and business and to locate its rendezvous in the City of Boston.

MASONIC TEMPLE

“To admit to membership, without fee, the present members of Boston and DeWitt Clinton Consistories, both honorary and active, according to a certified list to be furnished by the Secretaries of said bodies.

“To forthwith vacate all offices, both elective and appointed, for the purpose of completing the organization under the union.”

A convention of the members of the three Consistories was held Feb. 15, 1871, presided over by the Deputy, Ill. Bro. Samuel C. Lawrence, when Ill. Samuel K. Hutchinson, Commander-in-Chief, and the other officers of Massachusetts Consistory resigned; the Charters of DeWitt Clinton and Boston Consistories were surrendered, and it was announced that those bodies had ceased to exist. An election was held, in accordance with the Articles of Agreement, and the new officers installed.

The officers at the date of the consolidation were: Samuel K. Hutchinson, Commander-in-Chief; William North, First Lieutenant, and Joseph Bedlow, Second Lieutenant of Massachusetts Consistory; Benjamin Pope, Commander-in-Chief; Oliver Ellsworth, First Lieutenant, and Benjamin F. Smith, Second Lieutenant of DeWitt Clinton Consistory, and James A. Fox, Commander-in-Chief; Alfred F. Chapman, First Lieutenant; John L. Stevenson, Second Lieutenant of Boston Consistory.

Benjamin Pope, Commander of DeWitt Clinton Consistory was elected Commander of the united Massachusetts Consistory; John L. Stevenson of Boston Consistory, First Lieutenant; and Samuel K. Hutchinson of Massachusetts Consistory, Second Lieutenant.

Thus was united under one banner the various Consistories of the State, and the faith of the advocates of the union is fully warranted by the success which has attended, and brought to its present standing, the united Massachusetts Consistory.

On the 28th of April, 1893, our late Brother John Hoffman Collamore presented the Consistory a burial lot at Mt. Hope Cemetery, for the benefit of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. He also erected a monument in the lot, and with the deed for the 3,500 feet was a bond of perpetual care.

Unlike other masonic bodies, the elections of the Consistory occur but once in three years, and it speaks well for the harmony of the members that each Commander has been elected by a unanimous vote.

It speaks well also, for the devotion of the Commanders to the welfare of the Consistory that each presiding officer has retired from office leaving the body in a better position, numerically and financially, than his predecessor.

Of the fourteen Brethren who have presided over the Consistory, including the present Commander, ten have presided over their Blue Lodges, six have filled the position of High Priest of their Chapters, four have been elected to the head of their Councils of Royal and Select Masters, eight have served as Eminent Commanders, one has been Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, one Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts, one has been Grand Master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Massachusetts, and one has been Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island and Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States. Two have presided over Lodges of Perfection, and one over a Council of Princes of Jerusalem. All have been crowned Honorary Members, 33° of the Supreme Council, two of them being elected Active members.

The Board of Trustees shall keep a full and accurate record of the investments of the Permanent Fund, and at each annual rendezvous after April, 1907, they shall submit to the Consistory a correct statement of it in detail, and report its exact condition. The Trustees may appropriate one-fifth of the income of the Permanent Fund, at their discretion, to charitable purposes; or they shall otherwise appropriate the income agreeably to a vote of the Consistory; but all interest unexpended at the end of each year shall be added to the principal.

ARTICLE X.

A reserve fund shall be established and styled "The Reserve Fund of Massachusetts Consistory of Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret 32d, Boston, Mass." The fund shall consist of such interest-bearing securities as shall be approved by the Board of Trustees created in this Article, and purchased by vote of the Consistory for that purpose, and shall be held in the name of the Commander-in-Chief, Lieutenant-Commanders and members of Massachusetts Consistory, but shall be under the direction and control of a Board of Trustees, consisting of the Commander-in-Chief, First Lieutenant-Commander and all the Past Commanders-in-Chief of Massachusetts Consistory who hold no other office in the Consistory. The Board thus constituted shall be styled "The Trustees of the Reserve Fund of Massachusetts Consistory of Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret 32d, Boston, Mass."

The Board of Trustees shall keep the Reserve Fund carefully invested in such a way as, in their best judgment, shall be safest and most productive; and, at the expense of the Consistory, shall hire, of some Safe Deposit Company, a suitable place of deposit for the securities and vouchers of the fund, where their safety from fire and theft shall be insured.

ARTICLE XI.

ALTERATIONS OF BY-LAWS.

These By-Laws shall not be repealed or amended, unless the proposition to repeal or amend be submitted to the Consistory, in writing, at a regular rendezvous, read in open Consistory, stand at least two months previous to the discussion, and be inserted in the notifications of the rendezvous at which it is to be acted upon.

Every proposition to repeal or amend shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall report thereon at the next regular rendezvous, and the proposition may then be adopted by the consent of two-thirds of the members present; provided, however, that any proposition to repeal or amend Article IX, relating to the Permanent Fund, or this provision, shall not be adopted, except with the consent of four-fifths of the members at three consecutive regular rendezvous of the Consistory.

I hereby certify that the foregoing By-Laws were adopted by Massachusetts Consistory at the rendezvous of February 28, 1908.

William Sewall Gardner 33°

WILLIAM SEWALL GARDNER 33°

William Sewall Gardner, the son of Robert and Susan (Sewall) Gardner, was born Oct. 1, 1827, in Hallowell, in the state of Maine. He was educated in the common schools and in 1846 entered Bowdoin College. After his graduation he took up the study of law, and was admitted to the bar in Middlesex County in 1852. He removed to Boston in 1861, and found there a much wider and more responsible field for the exercise of his distinguished abilities.

Dec. 31, 1875, he was appointed an Associate Justice of the Superior Court, and Oct. 1, 1885, was promoted to a seat on the bench of the Supreme Judicial Court.

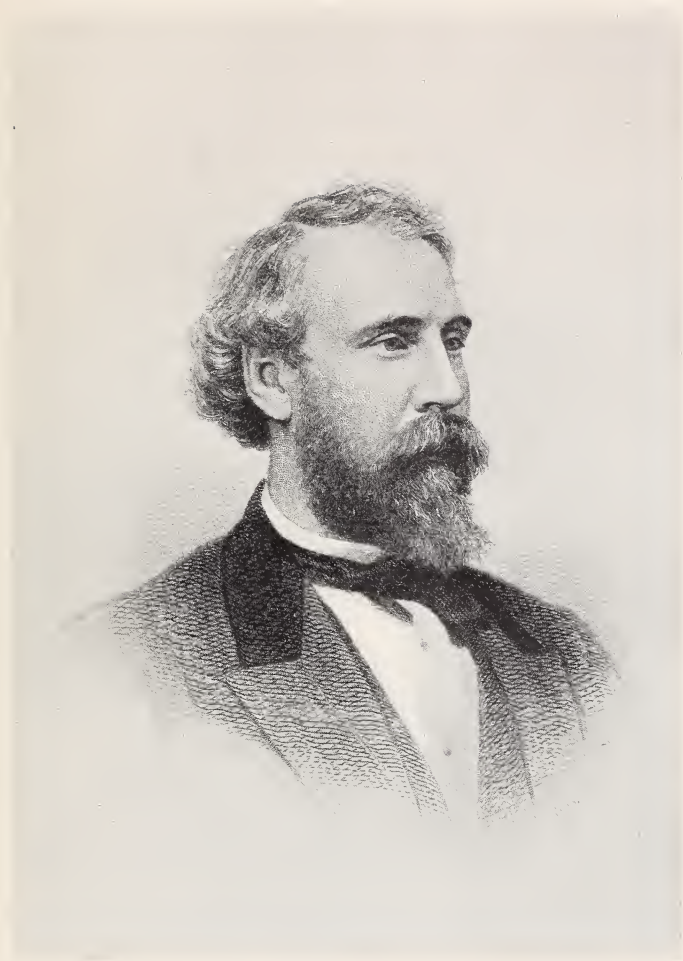

Brother Gardner was made a Mason in Ancient York Lodge of Lowell, Aug. 11, 1852, and subsequently received all the grades in both the York and Scottish Rites. He was Worshipful Master of Ancient York Lodge in 1856, 1857, dimitting to become a charter member of Kilwinning Lodge, of which he was its first Worshipful Master in 1866 to 1868.

In 1869, 1870 and 1871 he served as Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts. He was Eminent Commander of Pilgrim Commandery Knights Templar of Lowell in 1861, 1862; Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island in 1863 and 1864, and Most Eminent Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States from 1868 to 1871.

He was a charter member of the several bodies of the Scottish Rite established in Lowell, Grand Master of the Council of Princes of Jerusalem, and the first Commander-in-Chief of Massachusetts Consistory, then located at Lowell, serving from 1860 to 1864.

He was crowned an Active Member of the Supreme Council for the Northern Jurisdiction of the United States of America, May 16, 1861, and served as Deputy for Massachusetts from May 18, 1861, to May 17, 1867.

His death occurred at Newton, Mass., April 4, 1888.

William Sutton 33°

WILLIAM SUTTON 33°

William Sutton, son of William and Elizabeth (Treadwell) Sutton, was born in Salem, July 26, 1800.

At the age of seventeen, having completed the curriculum of the schools, he entered his father's employ as a subordinate, to learn and get complete mastery of the extensive ship owning and mercantile business which had brought wealth and social standing to his family.

So well did he fill the wishes of the paternal heart, that as soon as he had reached the age of maturity, the father retired wholly from control, and for fifty-seven years he successfully carried forward the heavy cares and responsibilities, until he, in time, relinquished them to his son.

He was largely identified with the public institutes of his city and county, five years a representative to the Legislature, senator at two different periods, and a member of the Governor's Council under Governors Clifford and Emory Washburn. Because of an innate love and passion for the military service, he became a member of the Salem Cadets at seventeen, and to the day of his death never ceased to fill some office in the military department of his State, being Senior Major General until the reorganization of the militia in 1864.

He received Masonic light in 1821 in Jordan Lodge of Danvers, the Capitular degrees in 1857, the Cryptic degrees in 1861.

He was knighted in DeMolay Commandery in 1857, but withdrew to become a charter member of Winslow Lewis Commandery, of which he was for twelve years its Eminent Commander.

He received the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite in 1860, and was Commander of Massachusetts Consistory, 1865, 1866, 1867.

He was created a Sov. Grand Ins. General and Honorary Member of the Supreme Council for the Northern Jurisdiction in 1862, and elected an Active Member, August 19, 1875.

He passed into the world beyond April 18, 1882.

Samuel Knox Hutchinson 33°

SAMUEL KNOX HUTCHINSON 33°

Brother Hutchinson, the only son of Solomon and Lydia (Farnham) Hutchinson, was born in Pembroke, N.H., Oct. 23, 1804.

In early life he learned to labor, and through a period of over fifty years was active in business. He served an apprenticeship as a brick mason at Exeter, N.H., and in 1822 went to Lowell and worked in the erection of some of the pioneer mills.

In the construction of water-works, dams, public buildings, etc., his services were in active demand at Lowell, Andover, Holyoke, Lewiston and Boston, and in 1864 he superintended the erection of the Masonic Temple at Boston.

He was proposed for initiation in Pentucket Lodge, Lowell, Dec. 22, 1825, being then twenty-one years old, and received the first degree Jan. 19, 1826; was elected and publicly installed as Worshipful Master of Mount Tom Lodge at Holyoke in 1851, and a charter member and Worshipful Master of Ancient York Lodge of Lowell in 1854.

He presided over Mt. Horeb Royal Arch Chapter of Lowell in 1853-1855, and was elected Thrice Illustrious Master of Ahasuerus Council, Royal and Select Masters, Sept. 23, 1861, and annually thereafter until Sept 16, 1867. He received the orders of Knighthood in Boston Commandery and became a charter member of Pilgrim Commandery, Lowell, in 1855, and was its first Eminent Commander under a charter, continuing in that office until October, 1859.

He received the degrees of the Scottish Rite in 1861, and was Thrice Potent Grand Master of Lowell Lodge of Perfection from 1864 to 1867. In December, 1867, he was elected Commander-in-Chief of Massachusetts Consistory, and continued in office until the union of the Consistories at Boston, Feb. 15, 1871.

May 22, 1863, Brother Hutchinson was created a Sov. Gr. Ins. Gen. of the Thirty-third Degree and Honorary Member of the Supreme Council. His death occurred at Lowell, Aug. 1, 1877.

Benjamin Pope 33°

BENJAMIN POPE 33°

Brother Pope was born in Waterford, Ireland, in January, 1829, and, with his father and family, became a resident of Boston before he had completed his first year of life.

His career as a successful business man was characterized by energy and discretion, and a conscientious and prompt discharge of all engagements. He was twice elected a member of the Common Council, and for the last year of his connection with that body was its presiding officer. At the time of his death he was a member of the Board of Aldermen, respected by his colleagues, not only for his social and manly qualities, but for his sound judgment, prudent wisdom and even justice.

He was made a Master Mason in Gate of the Temple Lodge, Sept. 26, 1856, and was its Worshipful Master in 1862, 1863, 1864.

In 1863 and 1873 he presided over St. Matthew's Royal Arch Chapter and was Eminent Commander of St. Omer Commandery Knights Templar in 1874, 1875, 1876.

An active member of the bodies of the Scottish Rite, he received the 32d degree in DeWitt Clinton Consistory, Oct. 29, 1863, and served as its Commander-in-Chief from Dec. 27, 1866, until the union in 1871, when he was elected Commander-in-Chief of Massachusetts Consistory, retiring from that office in 1876.

He became an Honorary Member of the Supreme Council, Dec. 13, 1866.

He died at his residence in South Boston, Sept. 25, 1879.

John Lindsay Stevenson 33°

JOHN LINDSAY STEVENSON 33°

John Lindsay Stevenson was born in Poplin (now called Fremont), N.H., on the 27th of December, 1833.

His father, Joseph, served in the war of 1812, and his mother, Judith, was a daughter of Benjamin True, a soldier of the Revolution.

Until he was fourteen years old he lived on his father's farm, and was then apprenticed for three years to a carriage builder at South Hampton, N.H. In 1852 he was engaged in the construction of locomotives at Lawrence, in this state, where he met with an accident which resulted in a permanent injury to his left hand and arm.

He moved to Boston in 1853, where for nearly ten years he was employed as a bookkeeper, establishing himself in business in 1862, as an importer and dealer in wines and liquors, carrying on the business to the end of his life.

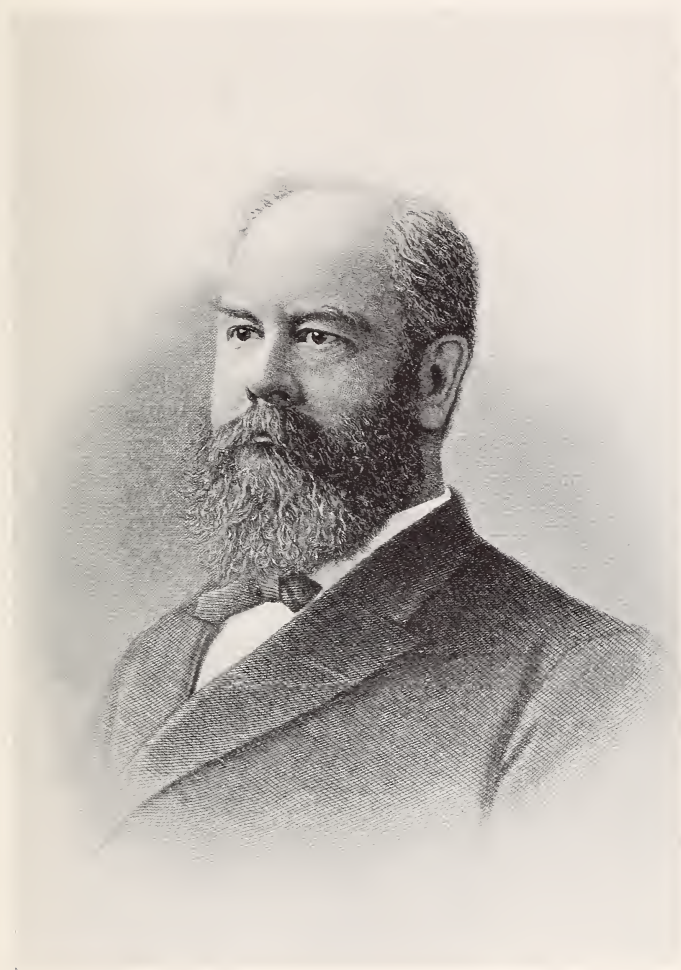

His Masonic life began in 1856, when he was made a Master Mason in Amicable Lodge, Cambridge, from which he dimitted and became Worshipful Master of Mt. Lebanon Lodge in 1860, 1861, 1862.

He was exalted in St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter in 1867, made a Royal and Select Master in Boston Council in 1868, was Knighted in Boston Commandery the same year, and was its Eminent Commander from Oct. 1881, to Oct. 1883.

He received the grades in the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite to and including the 32d, in February, 1863. At the union of the Consistories in 1871, Brother Stevenson was Second Lieutenant Commander of Boston Consistory, and in 1876 was chosen Commander-in-Chief of Massachusetts Consistory, serving until December, 1882.

He was created a Sovereign Grand Inspector General of the 33d and last degree, and elected an Honorary Member of the Supreme Council, Sept. 18, 1878.

He died Jan. 31, 1894, at his home in Rutland Square, Boston.

Thomas Waterman, M.D. 33°

THOMAS WATERMAN, M.D. 33°

Brother Waterman, son of Thomas and Joanna (Towle) Waterman, was born in Boston, Dec. 17, 1841, and his death occurred Dec. 14, 1901.

He was a graduate of Harvard College and of Harvard Medical School. He volunteered as an Assistant Surgeon in the Army in 1864, and on his return from the war he entered into successful practice in Boston.

As a physician he stood in the front rank of his profession, and had a high repute as an expert in mental disease, and as such was regarded as an authority.

The father of Brother Waterman was a well-known Mason, serving forty-three consecutive years as Secretary of Mt. Lebanon Lodge, so that it may be said the son's devotion to the Fraternity of Freemasonry came to him by natural inheritance.

Brother Waterman was raised in Mt. Lebanon Lodge, May 16, 1864, but withdrew to become a charter member of Zetland Lodge, over which he presided as Master in 1874 and 1875.

He was elected High Priest of St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter, Oct. 6, 1875, and served three years. In December, 1878, he was elected Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Massachusetts, which position he also filled for three years.

He was Knighted in Boston Commandery in 1878. In the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite he received the 14th degree in 1871, but did not receive the Consistory grades until 1877. He was Master of Ceremonies five years, and in December, 1882, was elected Commander-in-Chief for three years. After retiring from official position he continued to take prominent parts in the exemplification of the degrees, which he rendered with extraordinary force and dramatic skill.

He was created a Sovereign Grand Inspector General and Honorary Member of the Supreme Council 33d degree, Sept. 25, 1883.

John Hartwell Lakin 33°

JOHN HARTWELL LAKIN 33°

Brother Lakin was born in Bangor, Me., Aug. 1, 1847. When a young man he identified himself with the drug business and early in life came to Boston, where he established a pharmacy, and continued in the apothecary line during the balance of his life.

He was made a Master Mason in Belmont Lodge, Mass., June 24, 1869, and was elected Worshipful Master in 1873 and 1874.

He became a member of St. Paul's Royal Arch Chapter, Boston Council of Royal and Select Masters, and Boston Commandery Knights Templar.

He received the Ineffable Grades in Boston Lodge of Perfection in 1873 and presided over its deliberations as Thrice Potent Grand Master during the years 1875 and 1876.

In 1874 he was admitted a member of Massachusetts Consistory and served that body as Captain of the Guard from 1877 to 1882, was First Lieutenant-Commander in 1883, 1884 and 1885, and in the latter year was elected Commander-in-Chief, holding that office until December, 1888.

On Sept. 18, 1888, he was created a Sovereign Grand Inspector General, 33d degree, and Honorary Member of the Supreme Council.

He died at Falmouth Heights, Mass., on Aug. 20, 1905, and his funeral was held under the auspices of the Consistory from his residence in Somerville.

Albert Lewis Richardson 33

ALBERT LEWIS RICHARDSON 33°

Brother Richardson was born in Boston, Nov. 20, 1846, the son of Lewis G. and Sarah (Hammatt) Richardson. He is a lineal descendant in the eighth generation from Ezekiel Richardson, who settled in Charlestown in 1630.

His education was gained in the public schools of his native city, graduating from the English High School in 1862.

On leaving school he entered the employ of Francis M. Weld, an extensive importer of Chinese and India merchandise, where he remained until 1883, when he was compelled to relinquish active business life by reason of ill health.

He was raised in Mt. Lebanon Lodge, Boston, June 12, 1871, and served as Worshipful Master in 1877, 1878.

Exalted in St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter, Feb. 27, 1872, he was elected High Priest in 1880, 1881.
